QUAKER '77

Even though we try to blend into the crowd, each one of us, as an individual, offers something that no one else can.

SENIOR FUNDRAISER

Hang up your memories, put them back in your mind,
You'll never lose them, through spent days in time.
H.M.S.

We came to Greeley as inexperienced freshmen; awed by seniors and searching for L-Building. Our class, being divided as it was, had a rough beginning. We never quite got our float off the ground. But Sue began leading us through our years as Quakers. We've seen each other grow together and we've really come a long way in building a memorable four years at Greeley.

Our class has been through a lot together; including occasional disappointments and some tragic events. These have been as much a part of our learning experience as all of the good times that we've had.

Remember some of those good times? The big event in freshman year was Homecoming. The Fabulous Fifties alive again! By Sophomore year we had learned to be "cool." Our fundraiser really came together, as did Munch & our faithful Pres — Tom — in the cow suit. It was a great success. Then we were seen STREAKING to a fantastic fourth for the float. We showed 'em what we could do with a lot of hard work.

Between SAT's, Todd and Company managed to serve up a successful Sirloin Special and "Stocked the Foxes" at the same time. Then Mississippi Queen with Charisma topped off the year before we said good-bye to our CIE Ambassadors.

As Seniors we started a new era. Our school spirit shined through winning the float for us. Our Section One Champs "Spiked the Foxes" in spirit — but then came back in B-Ball — way to go! Our Winter Wonderland Sparkled with SAPPHIRE. January 31 officially marked the beginning of Senior Slump, but High Button Shoes picked us up . . . Goodbye Greeley!

Along the Way ...

SALUTATORIAN
Matt Garrigue

Looking back on the good and bad turnings and events of the last few years, I find that the following lines from a Grateful Dead song seem to pretty much sum up the way I feel:

Sometimes the light's all shining on me;

Other times I can barely see.

Lately it occurs to me

What a long, strange trip it's been.

You've got to keep things in perspective, because it can be a wierd world. Friends and music help to do it.

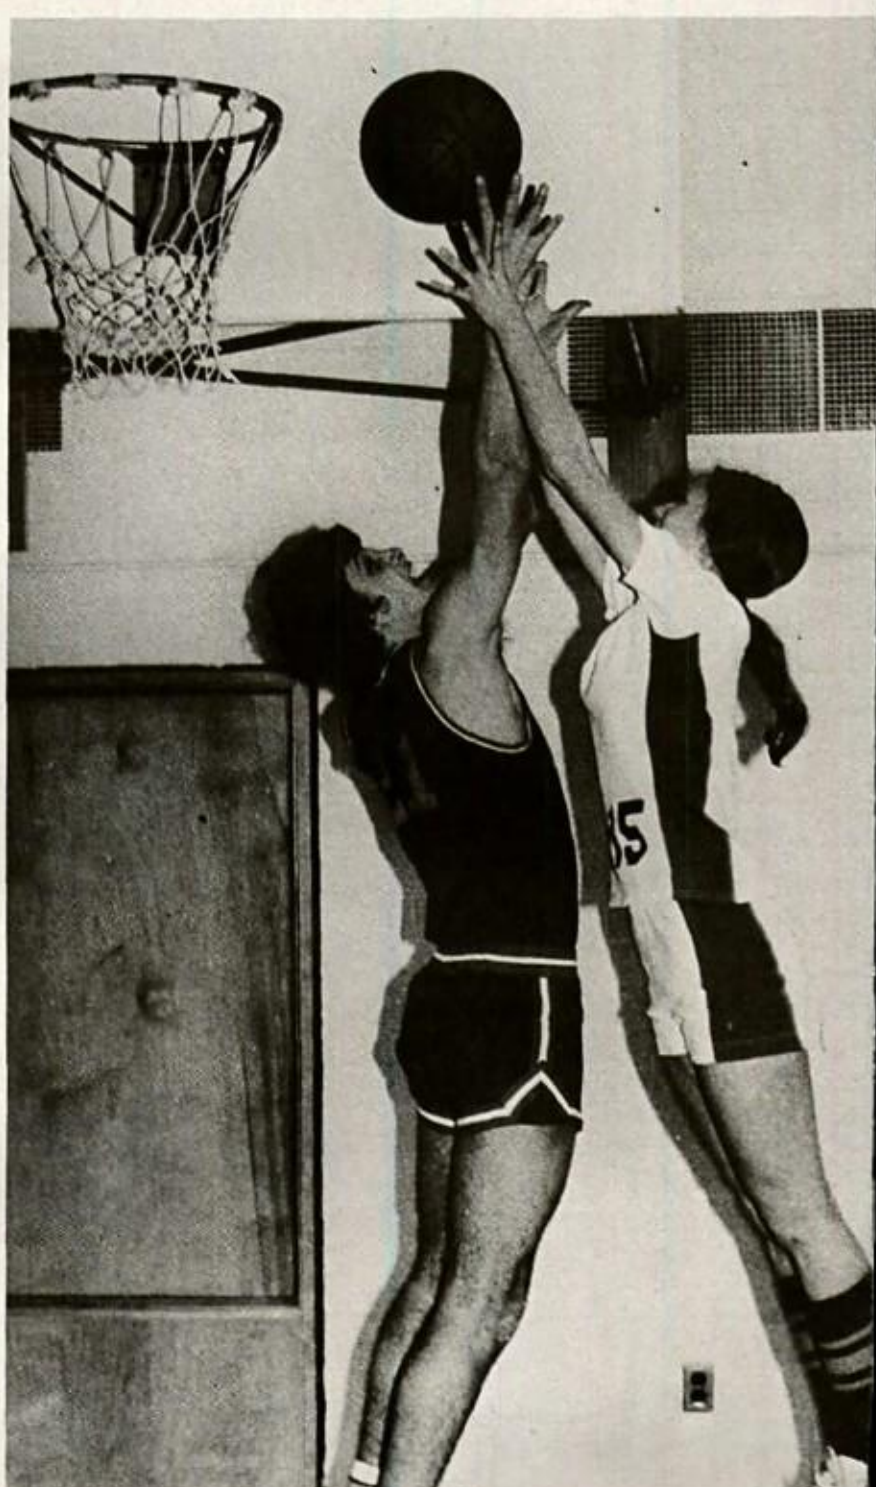

VALEDICTORIAN
Scott Petrack

Everyone has an answer. Ayn Rand tells us the virtue of selfishness; Maugham believes that those who seek fulfillment can never find it; Russell is sure that all will be destroyed in the course of time; Hemingway gives us a futile struggle; Sartre pleads "men must take sides;" Bible gives us the ultimate responsibility: "You are the man!"

Wilder gives us love. Not romantic love, for nothing truly spontaneous really happens anymore. There are prerequisites: each of us must look at ourselves from the outside — become proud of strength and never apologize for weakness. Only in this way can we accept people for what they are, and not for what they do.

"He who knows nothing, loves nothing. He who can do nothing, understands nothing . . . The more knowledge inherent in a thing, the greater the love . . . Anyone who imagines that all fruits ripen at the same time as the strawberries knows nothing about grapes."

SOME VERY VERY SPECIAL THANKS

RANDY —

This book is what it is because of all your talent and hard work. Without your color essay and section dividers Quaker '77 just wouldn't be the same. Sometimes all-nighters pay off.

MICHELE —

You have had the most laborious job with perhaps the fewest rewards. We depended on you for a lot; we were never disappointed.

LISA —

Your enthusiasm and your devotion is overwhelming. Thanks for coming to the rescue with faculty superlatives and more-than-your-share of everything else.

JEANNE —

You always have the best ideas and the most practical solutions. Now if only we could learn how to add . . .

DEDE —

How many seniors did you take? How many hours did you spend in the darkroom on the Nickerson-Burdick-Orr series? Can't you do better than that?

STEVE —

You (and your Kodalith) really helped pull everything together. If you do your post-graduate work at Greeley you should join the staff.

ARIEL —

Thanks for all those candids!

CINDY, JOYCE, JOANNE, NAOMI AND YVONNE —

You all did a terrific job laying-out photographs. Who would have guessed it takes a whole hour to do just one spread?

AIM, TED, CHRIS, ALAN, JOHANNA, DAMON, JULIE, LIZ, KRIS —

The special pride that each of you took in your section has added a unique quality to the book. Thanks for all your hard work.

PHOTOGRAPHERS —

We can't say thank you enough for all the hours and hours you've spent on yearbook. Hopefully your experience and the school's appreciation have made this year worthwhile.

MR. SWAYNE —

Your "you decide" attitude has taught us many invaluable lessons. Thanks for the decisions you haven't made.

AND FINALLY WE WOULD LIKE TO SAY THANK YOU TO ALL THE PATRONS AND SPONSORS WHO HAVE GENEROUSLY SUPPORTED OUR YEARBOOK.
